

“A WEDDING TOAST”

BY KENNY KUBACH

Up until recently, if you ever had the occasion to get into your vehicle, and drive northbound on Ontario Street, past the Quicken Loans Arena, where the Cleveland Cavaliers play basketball....you just could not miss that huge poster on the side of the Caxton Building of The King!

The caption read....We are all Witnesses!

For all of you basketball fans out there, myself included, we got it. Some thought...How did I miss the Second Coming?! Still, others never understood it, nor cared.

To me, Winning is “everything”. But the kind of Winning I am talking about is not the 1964 Cleveland Browns, nor is it the 1948 Cleveland Indians.

Winning to me is serving our Country in the Armed Forces.

Winning is when Abbee was honored as Student of the Month at Reynolds Elementary.

Winning is my Sweetcakes always there to help me with my chores...with that great smile.

Winning is saying her prayers with her at bedtime.

Winning is helping other people at all times.

Winning is putting on her white uniform and earning that diploma.

Winning is organizing her own wedding....wow! Now that’s a real job, huh, Abbee.

Winning is finding Nick in the floral department at Giant Eagle.

Winning is success on the playing field of Love.

I think you will agree with me now, Winning is “everything”. I am not concerned about a World Championship for Cleveland in any sport. I think I can speak for the Berzin and Kubach families gathered here today.....

We are all Witnesses!

We got our Championship today at the Church.

Congratulations, Abbee and Nick!
